

Hertford is like coming home again.

Savor the old-fashioned Southern hospitality and rediscover a way of life that has all but disappeared. Our tree-lined streets, waterfront parks, 1825 Federal-style courthouse, and well preserved late 18th to early 20th century Queen Anne Colonial Revival homes beckon you to visit.

Chartered in 1758 and the 7th oldest town in NC, Historic Hertford, once home to the Algonquin Indians, is said to take its name from the Yeopim Indians meaning "land of beautiful women." Nestled on the Perquimans River, picturesque Hertford can be approached by traveling over the only "S" shaped bridge in the nation.

The Mission of Historic Hertford, Inc. is to facilitate the development of Hertford's Historic District as the cultural, economic, social and historic center of Perquimans County, through the fostering of strategic civil, government and business alliances.
